IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

Appeal Lodgin No. 293 of 2004
in
Arb Petition No. 459 of 2003

Shri K P Reddy .. appellant vs
L & T Finance & ors ..Respondents

Mr.H.N.Thakore i/b Thakore Jariwala for appellant

None for respondents

CORAM: A.P.SHAH & S.J.VAZIFDAR JJ.
Dated l4.2.2005

P.C:

Mr. Thakore Jariwala stated that the appellant has taken away the papers therefore he is unable to make any submission in the matter.

. We have gone through the impugned order and perused the record. The only contention that was raised before the learned single Judge for setting aside the award was that the respondents have sold the two excavators at a very low price However, the learned counsel for the appellant also conceded before the learned single Judge that his client has not made any offer or brought any purchaser with a higher offer. Thus no ground is made out under section 34 of the Arbitration Act.

Appeal is dismissed.
